THEN and NOW

While only a relatively recent invention, computers have come a long way.

THEN: The first electronic computer was completed in 1946. Called the Electronic Numerical Integrator and Computer (ENIAC) it was designed and built under the direction of J. Presper Eckert, Jr. and John W. Mauchly of the Moore School of Electrical Engineering of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. It was housed in a room 30 feet by 50 feet, contained approximately 18,000 vacuum tubes and required 130 kilowatts per hour.

St. Anne's Church Prepares For Bazaar

Mrs. Kenneth Powell and son, Erik, are pictured above admiring the Swiss chalet type doll house which has been handmade and donated to St. Anne's Church for their annual Bazaar to be held Saturday, Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. The doll house, handmade quilt and electric train, also pictured above, could be YOURS for a donation of $1.00. Tickets will be available at the door the day of the bazaar or may be obtained from members of the church. The drawing will take place at 3:30 p.m. Dec. 2, in the Parish Hall of St. Anne's on Oakleigh Avenue.

NOW: Computers today are much smaller and much more sophisticated. Even many small businessmen find them just about indispensable. One top quality, desk-top microcomputer, Radio Shack's TRS-80, helps businessmen save time spent on paperwork. The system can make out the payroll, handle general ledger accounts, record accounts receivable and control inventory.

"We were very fortunate." "We could not play another game like that and expect to win."

These words from Head Coach, Stuart Justus tell the story of the Raiders 17-14 play-off victory over Bassett High School which sends Appomattox into the Region III finals against Fieldale-Collinsville this Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at Collinsville.

In a pre-game statement, Coach Justus prophesied that the team that controlled the ball would win the game. A quick look at the statistics will tell you that did not happen.

"Our offense won the game," said Justus, "our defense let us down."

After receiving the opening kick-off, the Raider offense struck quickly for 29 yards on two carries but fumbled on the Bassett 39 where the Bengals recovered.

The Bengals promptly proved that could move the ball on the ground and that Quarterback David Cunningham could throw if necessary.

After a scoreless first period, Bassett put togethter a drive and scored on a Cunningham to Scott Jones pass on fourth down with 6:45 remaining in the half. The Bengals used the same play for a two point conversion and led 8 - 0.

The Raiders then mounted a sustained attack that run into trouble at the Bengal 3-yard line where Coach Justus called for the field goal on fourth down. Freddie Mitchell hit from 25 yards out for the first Raider points of the night.

With 23 seconds left in the first half, the Raiders took possession on their own 30. Terry Woods pulled in a pass from Quarterback Joe Fraley and scampered to the Bangal 30 where he was knocked out of bounds. On the next play, Fraley got the ball back, after a double reverse, and passed to Darrell Schrock who had to stretch for the ball going into the end zone. The 30-yard play was good for 6 points and Mitchell added the seventh for a 10-8 halftime lead for the Raiders.

The second half belonged to the Bengals who ran 37 offensive plays, compared with 12 for Appomattox. After taking the kick-off to open the third period, Bassett moved from their own 32 to the Raider goal in 14 plays, using 7 minutes on the clock. The Raiders took the kick-off after the touchdown and ran three plays for seven yards then punted and failed to get the ball back in the entire quarter although the Bengals could not push the ball across. Third quarter score was 14-10 Bassett.

The Raider defense finally got the ball back early in the fourth period and Fraley threw to Chris Johnson on the left sideline with Johnson outrunning the opposition and scoring on a 72 yard play with 10:50 remaining in the game.

In desperation, Bassett went to the air to try and pull the game out, but a driving interception by Ronnie Abernathy stopped the Bengals on the Raider 27.

After an offside penalty nullified a first down with just over a minute remaining, Kenny Wayne Burks punted more than 40 yards under extreme pressure and the defense held giving the Raiders an exciting victory.

Fidelity's 5% Christmas Club... For the kind of Christmas you remember all your life.

Take a minute to think about some of the "special" Christmases in your life. Maybe the one when the kids got the puppy that was a member of the family for eighteen years. Or the Christmas reunion, when all the aunts and cousins and grandparents came—and you couldn't walk for kids and presents. Or the many times the two of you danced to the Bing Crosby Christmas album, all alone, by the light of the tree. Special holidays, to dream of year after year. At Fidelity American Bank, nothing makes us happier than playing a part in somebody's "special" Christmas. Next year, let us be part of yours. Simply open a Fidelity Christmas Club, add to it here and there during the year and, when it's paid up, get back all your money and 5% interest...just in time to make next Christmas as nice as all the ones in your dreams.
